Hello,

We received your counter notice and the same will be processed and sent to the complainant within 48 hrs. Please note that per Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) the complaining party has up to 10 business days from their receipt of your original counter notice to file a lawsuit in response. The DMCA also requires your listing(s) to remain disabled during this 10 business day period. Should the complainant file a lawsuit in response, you will be notified of the same and the content will remain inactive. Please be patient with us as this process may take up to 16 days before we can respond with a decision on your reinstatement request. No further action is required from you at this point.

For more information about Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), please visit the U.S. Copyright Office website (<https://www.copyright.gov>).

Hello,

We reviewed your appeal and accepted it for the following content:

BOGGGQJ654

In an effort to protect our community, we sometimes err on the side of caution. We are sorry for any inconvenience this has caused.

To confirm that the ASIN or offer was reinstated:

1. In the Inventory section of Seller Central, select Manage Inventory.
2. Search for the ASIN or offer in question, or select Fix Stranded Inventory.
3. Edit the inactive ASIN or offer by updating the product information.
4. Save and finish.

If you are unable to confirm the ASIN or offer reinstatement, there may be additional reasons why these listings were deactivated. Please review and resolve any remaining issues by visiting your Account Health page (https://sellercentral.amazon.com/performance/dashboard?ref=tag=email_reinstatement), or you can select Account Health on the home screen of the Amazon Seller app on your iOS or Android device. The Account Health dashboard shows how well your account is performing against the performance metrics and policies required to sell on Amazon.
